

Who do I call?

The Session along with the COM is responsible for the congregation until the new pastor arrives

If you need help or have questions in a particular area:
--or-- if you want to volunteer to help

Worship –

Fred D. will be in charge of scheduling weekly supply pastors and pastors for other necessary occasions. COM(Marena) will help when asked

Becky will represent the church at planning meetings events related to Holy Week community services

Rod will continue to provide worship aids (bulletins, hearing and sight assistance devices, etc.)

Buildings & Grounds – window completion - Fred D. will continue to oversee window restoration

Memorial Garden maintenance - Fred D. & Floyd will continue

Continued accessibility awareness and work - Rod will be asked to continue being sensitive to awareness concerns – but also other areas where the church can be more inviting

Pastoral Care –

Home Communion-

Need ordained pastor and COM approval - COM (Marena) will think about how to more easily provide this worship experience, possibly with 'extended communion service' – officiating pastor from sanctuary service will bless the elements and elders will provide the service.

-or- get COM to train some elders to officiate COM(Marena) will also consider how to provide special training to selected elders so they may officiate at home communion (& 1 Buntline)

continue services at 1 Buntline - Fred D. & Lynn will continue the work they do and assist in facilitating the communion experience

Home/hospital visits – need process to be assured that no one falls into the cracks should be coordinated with Deacons Bonnie, Fred D., Lynn will continue work and will determine how to streamline communications concerning needs - Note that Dave is an employee at 1 Buntline and as such is prohibited from much of the pastoral care and other needs contact with patients. Also note that Fred H. (Deacons) and Becky (has training and commissioning by Presbytery) might be helpful.
